$20 per person
(+shipping/handling)

The fluid art class will be taught by Me, Karina, in my home studio in Austin, TX. With the $20, you'll learn how to make the painting above with different colors in size 8x10in or 6x6in canvas, and all materials included. In total from start to finish, it should take about 45 minutes. The painting itself will take a day or two to dry. Shipping and delivery options are available, but are going to be extra from the $20. Acrylic paint is not washable from fabrics, I recommend wearing a T-shirt you don't mind getting painted. The process isn't too messy but your hands will be full of paint, and it's easy to get it on yourself. I will explain step-by-step procedures of how to mix the paint and then demonstrate. Then, I'll guide you on the process and help you make a masterpiece!

If you have any questions on anything please send me an email artebykarina@gmail.com
I do ask for $10 in deposit to claim your spot in the class and $10 the day of the class. If you would like to pay the whole $20 upfront that is okay.
Send money to Venmo or PayPal.
I will only be taking 8 people in total for this first class! I'm so excited and can't wait to share this wonderful way of painting.

XOXO,
Karina Ruby Haro
